Presented by Bishop Woost

BISHOP WOOST

Wednesday, September 6 at 7 p.m.
St. Hilary Parish
2750 W. Market Street, Fairlawn

Drawing upon the teachings of some great Catholic saints, mystics, and theologians, Bishop Woost will reflect on the transformative effect of the Mass and the Eucharistic Presence of Christ. He will suggest how the Eucharist can bring us into a more intimate relationship with God and impact the way that we live our lives as disciples of Jesus. Bishop Woost is the Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Cleveland, Head of the Diocese Office of Worship, and Liturgy Faculty at St Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology.

Gospel Reflection

Like many of you, I've had the experience of physical therapy. PT is frequently ordered after surgery or an accident, usually after a person has begun to recover from the initial pain. The body has begun to heal and you begin to feel a little better.

Then you meet with the physical therapist. Stretch that muscle. Bend that joint. Hold it for a count of 30 seconds. Repeat. Do that 10 times. Ouch! "No pain, no gain", they say.

And so, for the greater good, you work through the discomfort. It's worth it to regain the use of your range of motion, to rebuild strength.

In today's first reading Jeremiah admits that his role as prophet has caused him no end of grief. It has brought him "derision and reproach all the day." He admits to being a laughingstock! And yet...It's better than the alternative! Not to speak the message he has been given by God is more painful. "I cannot endure it. "

In the gospel Peter tells Jesus exactly what he thinks about the possibility of Jesus suffering and dying. "No such thing shall ever happen to you! "

Jesus points out to Peter, in the strongest possible language, how shortsighted that vision is!

SUPPORT OUR SEMINARIANS

The Parents of Priests Organization of our Cleveland Diocese works to support the needs of the seminarians at Borromeo and St. Mary Seminaries in many ways, including financial and spiritual support. One of the ways that members of the Diocese, and especially our St. Hilary Parish, can assist these men is through spiritual support. Last week's bulletin contained an insert with a calendar page for the next two months (Sept.-Oct.) Each day is designated for prayer support for a seminarian as well as our Pope, Bishop Edward Malesic and Bishop Michael Woost, Pastors, Priests, and other related intentions. Our parish should be grateful for our own seminarian and prayerfully remember him on his special days: James Parisi – Sept. 11th / Nov. 16. Also, do remember to pray for any of our own parishioners who are discerning their vocations.

St. Hilary School of the Congo Special Collection THIS WEEKEND—September 2/3

This weekend, September 2 and 3, we will have a special collection for the St. Hilary School of the Congo School in Tshela, the Democratic Republic of the Congo. The goal for this collection is to develop an e-learning program for K-12 STEM, a program for vocational training skills and telemedicine, as well as a digital library to further the education of children, teens, and adults.

In three years because of your generosity, St. Hilary School of the Congo has come so far—from teaching outside of a crumbled building, to building a brand new school! And with this special collection this weekend, we can provide these teachers and students with an even better education.

Please consider a donation on September 2 and 3! Envelopes will be available in the pews that weekend. Thank you for all you do and for your continued generosity!

We also invite you to visit our website to learn more about this effort over the last few years:
sthilarychurch.org/congo/.

This is a picture of classroom in Tshela before St. Hilary School of the Congo was built.

This is a picture of one of the classrooms built with your donations at St. Hilary School of the Congo.

This is a postcard of the K-12 STEM and digital classrooms that this collection will be creating at St. Hilary School of the Congo. The goal is to connect St. Hilary School in Fairlawn with St. Hilary School of the Congo.
