Faith Formation

Gospel Reflection

The wisdom of the spiritual life reminds us that "Every saint has a past; every sinner has a future." I suggest that key to the movement from sinner to saint is God's forgiveness, experienced when we perceive that we need that forgiveness. First, I must recognize that I have done something for which I need to be forgiven, and then I realize and accept forgiveness. Without the difficult, sometimes painful, realization of my own sin I will not seek nor appreciate God's always offered forgiveness and move from sinner to saint.

The wicked servant in today's gospel has just such a blind spot. With himself as the center of his own universe he fails to treat his fellow servant with the forgiveness he has been shown. It is not until he is reported to the master that this wicked servant is forced to confront his own bad behavior and see it for what it truly was.

Examination of conscience is a good thing. Individually, without reflection on where we have been wrong we cannot hope to do better. We will not seek and then find forgiveness but will stay trapped, our spiritual growth stunted.

The same can be said of our society. Unless we see the sins of racism, greed, destruction of the Earth and its resources... for the evils that they are, we will never do better...be better.

In our country, the attack on our capital on January 6 is a good example. A violent mob attacked Capitol police, screamed for the death of the vice president and sought an end to the peaceful transfer of power from one administration to another. There are those who tell us not to look back. Just look ahead, they say. Pay no attention to the evil that was done and how we got there.

But without such "paying attention" justice cannot be served. Forgiveness cannot be sought and received. We cannot do better.. be better.

Let us each seek to recognize where we have failed to become all God wants of us, to repent and seek forgiveness.

And, as citizens, let us accept the role of the servants in today's gospel. Let us pay attention, recognize evil and injustice where it exists and intervene.

Edmund Burke with right. "The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men (and women) to do nothing."

ANGEL SCHOLARSHIP Turn Your Taxes into Tuition

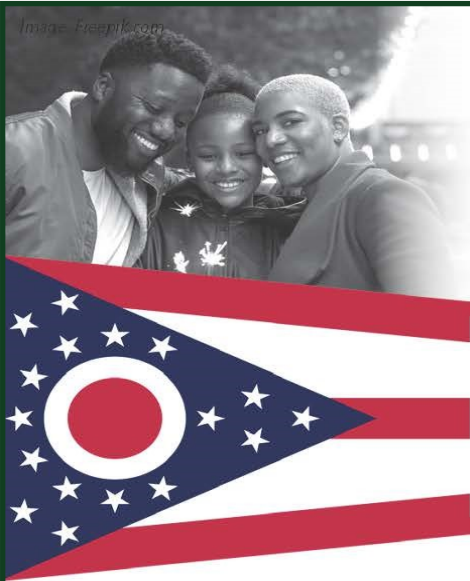

In 2022, 83 donors helped us to raise over $87,000 that provided Angel Scholarship funds for 46 St. Hilary School students. These funds did not cost the donors a penny and significantly reduced the amount of tuition assistance required to be provided by the parish. Our goal for 2023 is to double what was achieved in 2022! You can be a part of this program and turn your taxes into tuition, too! Scan the QR code below to learn more. Already an Angel Scholarship donor? If you are interested in being an Angel Scholarship Ambassador to help spread the word about this opportunity, please contact Debbie Sinopoli at dsinopoli@st-hilary.org.

ACME COMMUNITY CASH BACK PROGRAM

The Acme Community Cash Back Program has started! This generous program gives 5% of qualified purchases as cash back to our school. Your part is easy - just save your entire receipt when you shop at Acme and then send your receipts to school in an envelope marked ACME RECEIPTS c/o Victoria Reuscher, Room 208. Receipts can also be placed in a bin marked ACME RECEIPTS in the metal closet located in the Spiritual Center hallway. Or if you prefer, take a picture of your receipts (be sure to include the bottom portion of the receipt that includes the cash back amount) and email to tarareuscher@gmail.com. Eligible receipts will have dates from August 1, 2023 through February 15, 2024. Any others are not eligible.

This program runs now through February, 2024 so please keep saving all those eligible receipts! The collection bins will be in place until the end of February, 2024. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Tara Reuscher at 330-618-6508.

St. Hilary Parish Pastoral Council

Paul Heil led the opening prayer by sharing a personal story. He described experiencing a personal struggle when someone asked if he was "okay?" The person felt called by the Holy Spirit to pray over Paul. Further, two members of the Healing Waters Ministry happened to be present and also were called to pray over Paul. Paul felt God's presence. Paul then read a prayer from St. Francis in which God is always there for us when we most are in need.
